LAND COMPANY ELECTS OFFICERS FOR NEXT YEAR

The stockholders of the Fort Myer Heights Land Company met in the court house of Fort Myer Heights Wednesday at noon and elected the following directors for next year: Daniel R. Trimmer, H. C. Brennemann, R. H. Shindie, Joseph S. F. Kerr, George P. Robinson, Charles A. Douglas, and E. S. Douglass. The meeting then adjourned to the company's Washington office, 704 Fourteenth Street, for the election of officers and transaction of business connected with their installation.

CORNER PROPERTY SOLD FOR GOOD PRICE

The property on the southeast corner of Fourteenth and I Streets northwest, and improved by a substantial brick building, now occupied by George C. Shaffer, has been sold by Warren Choate, real estate broker, to Edward Murphy. The property fronts twenty feet on Fourteenth Street and seventy-five feet on I Street, containing 1,500 square feet. It sold for $25,000 cash, or about $16.66 per foot, which is good value for the property.

Mr. Murphy purchased the property from Arthur Mattans, and it is understood to have been bought as an investment only. No improvements are immediately contemplated.

UNION SEMINARY LEGATEE OF ELIZABETH BUSEY

By her will, dated March 16, 1897, Elizabeth Busey named the Union Theological Seminary of Virginia as a beneficiary. She leaves her sister, Ellen Dunlop, and her nephew, Henry D. Crampton, each $2,000. The remainder of the estate is left to the trustees of the Union Theological Seminary, as an endowment for a fund to be known as the William G. Busey fund, for the education of students for the ministry of the Presbyterian Church.

ANOTHER BIG CONCERN INCORPORATED HERE

A certificate of the incorporation of the British-American Investors' Corporation, Limited, has been filed in the office of the Recorder of Deeds. The purpose of the company is to negotiate for the underwriting, flotation and sale of securities; to engage in mining, manufacturing, and construction of railroads, electric and water plants. The capital stock is $500,000, and the incorporators are Joseph S. Kennedy, Robert S. Kennedy, and Alexander Woods.

GEORGE NORTHEDGE DEAD.

George Northedge, who was a factor in local professional athletics some years ago, died yesterday at Providence Hospital after an illness of six weeks. In his forty-second year. Northedge, who was better known as George Northridge, was a pugilist, and after gaining the decision over Billy McMillan was for five years champion of the District of Columbia. Later he was interested in turf sports, and at the time of his death was an attaché at St. Asaph's track, in Virginia, across the river from this city.

CERTIFICATES FILED.

Certificates of incorporation of the following named business enterprises have been filed in the office of the Recorder of Deeds:

The Eastern Securities Company; capital, $100,000; incorporators, B. E. Bassford, Evans W. Thomas, and David E. Anthony.
 The Seaside Chautauqua Company, organized for the purpose of selling and establishing parks for summer schools; capital, $1,000,000; incorporators, William E. Ambrose, Charles A. Darling, and James B. Archer Jr.

SAMUEL SIMS' TRIAL FOR KILLING WILLIAMS

Samuel Sims, a negro, will be called to trial for murder before Justice Pritchard on next Monday in Criminal Court No. 1. The Government will be represented by Assistant District Attorneys Turner and Gordon, and the accused by Messrs. Wells and Wells.

The crime for which Sims will be called to answer is the killing of James Williams, also colored, on January 25 last, near the District line, beyond Brookland. The story of the affair is that there was no quarrel between the men. Sims had fired off a pistol, and Williams asked why he had done so. In answer Sims said to Williams, "If you come near me I will shoot you." Without awaiting a reply from Williams, it is said Sims took deliberate aim and fired at him. The bullet entered Williams' head near his right eye and he died very soon after.

PEGGS TO KEEP PEOPLE FROM TRAMPLING ON LAWN

F. G. Eiker, of 2001 Kalorama Avenue northwest, has been granted permission by the District Commissioners to drive pegs in the parking space in front of his house to protect his lawn from the incursions of persons who persist in walking across it in turning the corner. For good reasons Mr. Eiker does not want to have a fence in front of his house, and he says nothing he has been able to do has sufficed to keep careless persons off the grass on his lawn. He thinks driving small pegs into the turf over which pedestrians will stumble in the dark will have the desired effect. He will be allowed to try the experiment.

WILL AND CODICIL FILED FOR ADELAIDE WALLACE

Mrs. Adelaide Wallace, by her will dated June 27, 1892, leaves $5 to her son, Daniel J. Wallace, and the remainder of her estate to her daughter, Adelaide D. Lucas.

The estate is left in trust to Albert F. Fox, as executor, who is directed to pay the wards of the testatrix such amounts as may be due them. By the terms of a codicil to the will, dated September 15, 1894, Mrs. Wallace directs that her estate shall be divided equally among her sister, Amelia W. Crampton, her daughter, Adelaide D. Lucas, and her son, Daniel J. Wallace.

GREEK FRUIT VENDER STABBED BY ANOTHER

Greek met Greek in Jackson Hall Alley yesterday, when James Manganaranes and Nicholas Characac, fruit dealers, became involved in a quarrel. Blows were exchanged, and Characac suddenly pulled a knife, plunging the point in his opponent's left side. That ended the fight, and Manganaranes was conveyed to the Emergency Hospital, where an examination showed the wound to be not serious. His assailant was arrested.

THE NEWS OF GEORGETOWN.

Linthicum Institute Exercises.

The commencement exercises of Linthicum Institute will take place on the evening of May 19, at Linthicum Hall, on O Street, between Thirty-first and Thirty-second Streets northwest. Three one-act comedies will be presented by the boys of the school, assisted by the Linthicum Dramatic Club. "How Mrs. Mulcahy Paid the Rent," written by Frank Van Sant and Mabel Fuller, of the Dramatic Club, will be one of the offerings, and the "Medical Discovery" will be another. All of the boys of the school will participate in the latter. The usual distribution of prizes will take place after the exercises. The first prize will be $15 in gold; second, $10 and the third, $5. Some years ago, when the school was in a better financial condition, the first prize offered the student attaining the highest mark was $50. Special prizes will be given for attendance, mechanical drawing, and architectural drawing.

DELEGATES TO SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION

The following members of the Fifth Baptist Church left yesterday to attend the forty-eighth session of the Southern Baptist Convention at the First Baptist Church of Savannah, Ga., which begins today at 10 a. m.: The Rev. C. C. Meador, D. D., J. J. Darlington, Howard R. Norton, Samuel Howison, Joseph B. Bailey, Mrs. Esther Hughes, and Annie C. and Elizabeth M. Darlington. The annual sermon will be preached by the Rev. W. J. Williamson, of Missouri, or his alternate, the Rev. W. M. Vines, of North Carolina.

The convention will last until the 14th of May.

The District of Columbia Baptist churches have sent over $2,000 to the Southern board, which exceeds the contribution of any preceding year.

NEW SEWERS AUTHORIZED.

On the recommendation of the Superintendent of Sewers, the District Commissioners have authorized the construction of a 12-inch sewer along the east side of Connecticut Avenue, between California and Wyoming Avenues, at an estimated cost of $375. Also a 12-inch outlet sewer along the east side of Connecticut Avenue between California Avenue and Columbia Road, at a cost of $265. This action was taken at the request of Wood, Donn & DeWing, who requested drainage for residence and stable at the southeast corner of Connecticut and Wyoming Avenues.

A request by the same firm to be permitted to use a six-inch sewer for the drainage of the buildings across the lot to the public sewer, has been granted with the stipulation that it be an eight-inch sewer.

RETAIL BUTCHERS HAD A JOLLY ANNIVERSARY

Four hundred butchers and their friends were present last evening when the Retail Butchers' Association celebrated its second anniversary smoker 'n the hall of the Fat Men's Club, on D Street. No business was transacted. The only resolution acted upon by the jolly butchers was:

"Resolved, That we spend an enjoyable evening."

This was unanimously adopted. Refreshments were served. Following are the officers of the Retail Butchers' Association: J. R. Kelley, president; R. F. Stoneh, first vice president; William Johnson, second vice president; G. K. Holt, secretary; and J. E. Donovan, treasurer.
